

A two-day professional development institute

Making Authentic Inquiry Work!

Exploring transformative pedagogies using professional inquiry methods

Location:

280N York Lanes
York University
4700 Keele Street
Toronto, ON M3J 1P3

Date and Time:

August 23-24, 2016
9:00 am - 4 pm daily

Cost:

$320 for two-day workshop
(Breakfast, lunch,
refreshments, 2 publications,
and HST included)

Space is Limited!

Register by August 9 at:
www.LSF-LST.ca/institutes

Who should attend?

- Elementary teachers of all grades who wish to explore how authentic inquiry is being applied across the curriculum
- School administrators and system leaders who wish to support implementation of transformative pedagogies supporting engaged citizenship.

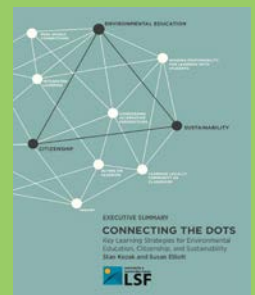

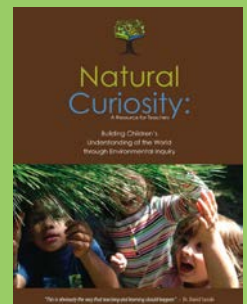

Outcomes—through their participation, educators will:

- Identify and address their individual questions and challenges in applying inquiry and related strategies in their professional practice
- Experience professional inquiry methods that can in turn be applied with students. We walk the talk and model inquiry methodology.
- Investigate collaborative knowledge building principles and methods such as Knowledge Building Circles.
- Gain confidence in planning authentic inquiry learning experiences and applying appropriate assessment methodology.

Each participant will receive print copies of:

Natural Curiosity (www.naturalcuriosity.ca) and Connecting the Dots (<http://lsf-lst.ca/dots>)

For additional program information contact: Sam Gawron via samantha@lsf-lst.ca or call 1-877-250-8202

A collaborative project of Learning for a Sustainable Future

LSF

Natural Curiosity
A Resource for Teachers